FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Boys & Girls Club Wildcats Host Tryouts

The Boys & Girls Club Wildcats & Wildcats Select AAU, will be hosting tryouts for their 4th - 11th grade boys & girls basketball teams beginning March 8 at the Boys & Girls Club of Rockford – Flodin Unit, 1000 Mill Road in Rockford.

The Wildcat teams participate in skill development training, as well as a variety of leagues and competitive tournaments from March through August 10. Fees vary by grade level and include player development clinics conducted by instructor, Shane Bautch, and a Wisconsin Playmakers Camp, hosted in Rockford. In addition, in an effort to help Wildcat players work through a specific problem, club members will be able to schedule one-on-one training time with Coach Bautch.

The Boys & Girls Club of Rockford provides programs for local youth in the areas of character and leadership development, educational enhancement, career preparation, health and life skills, the arts and sports, fitness and recreation.

Parents interested in registering their son or daughter for tryouts or learning more about the Wildcats program can go to www.rockfordbasketball.org, or call Chuck Lynde at (815) 509-1339. The Wildcats are also looking for experienced coaches.
